"Ask the mothers and sisters of the men who died at Carrisal, and at Sasta Tanbel, when 19 men were murdered by handits ask refugees from Mexico if we have had peace. Come nearer home go to Columbus, where men were tilled, wenner outraged and children beasen and think if we want that kind of peace. Wilson has not kept us out of war. It's what he has got us into, not out of, that we are suffering the effects of.

"They are also claiming that he kept the country out of a strike, by the passage of the eight-hour Adamson law. The eight-hour law is a gold brick, and is merely a question of wage.

"Four hundred thousand men were attected by the eight-hour bill, while 1.500.000 were not. In my opinion the bill is a gold brick and does not do what it professes to do, it is but another attempt to get votes by representations to the people, just before election time. Wilson, lately, has been touring the country speaking about a may increase bill. What do we want with battleships if we are too proud to fight."

Rughes Not for War.

"Hughes is not for war. He is for prace as much as anyone, but he believes in protecting American rights and their property in foreign countries. Hughes believes in an honorable government, one of business principle, of efficient men in office, of American labor, and of home industry. Hughes is dependable the has never been known to break his word. No such charge has ever been made. He is a man of wide experience, and lans the interests of the country at heart. Hughes did not seek office. He was not a cannilate, but the office rought him, as the man needed." Cheers followed the name of Hughes.

Mr. Ramsey made a brief arraignment of the alleged fallure of the Democratic administration to make good certain planks of the platform, and concluded in an appeal for votes for Hughes next Turaday when El Panonans go to the polits.

Fight for Legislature.

Strong efforts are being made by both parties to capture the state legislature. It is told that the Hunt forces are hoping to secure the legislature as well as the reclection of the governor, thus clearing the way for all the progressive legislation they desire to pass. Mniford Winson, Hunt's closest partiesn, is a candidate for the state senate from Yuma county, and is so assured of his own election that he is said to have started a campaign for the presidency of the upper legislative house. Prohibition An Issue.

Prohibition is cutting some figure in the Arikiton is cutting some figure in the Arikiton compaign. In Phoenix the prohibitionists are calling upon each of the candidates for a specific declaration with regard to their position on the new amendment designed to prevent the introduction of liquor, now permissable under late court decisions. As far as can be learned, all candidates are "diy" and piedges have been received from nearly all to sustain promibition to the limit. This placing of the candidates on record is considered executia; in view of the fact that two legislatures, in long drown out seessions, have failed to enact any legislation adverse to the liquor interests.
